AMENDMENT NO. 9 Shall the Home Rule Charter, Section 68, Part II, of Article IX, be amended to read as follows: 68: ESTABLISHMENT There is hereby established a Municipal Court vested with exclusive jurisdiction over all causes arising under the Charter and Ordinances of the City. The Municipal Court Judge shall be appointed by Council for a term of two years and may be removed by Council for cause by four concurring votes. If, in the discretion of Council, more than one judge is necessary, one or more additional judges may be appointed. Commencing January 1, 1982, and thereafter, all Municipal Court Judges shall be appointed. Upon passage of this Charter Amendment, elections of municipal judges shall not thereafter take place. The unexpired term of any elected municipal judge shall not hereby be affected. Method of Appointment: Any vacancy in the Municipal Court shall be filled by appointment of the City Council, from a list of two or three nominees for the Municipal Court, such list to be certified to the City Council by the Municipal Court Nominating Commission for any vacancy. The list shall be submitted by the Nominating Commission not later than thirty (30) days after the death, retirement, tender of resignation, or removal of the Municipal Court Judge. Method of Re-Appointment: The Municipal Court Nominating Commission shall make a merit review of the Municipal Court Judge's term of office at least sixty days prior to the conclusion of the term and submit the findings thereof to the City Council. Council shall then vote whether to retain the Municipal Court Judge. Should the vote be not to retain the Municipal Court Judge, the office shall be considered vacant at the conclusion of the term of office. Municipal Court Nominating Commission: The purpose of the Municipal Court Nominating Commission shall be to find the most qualified persons for the position of Municipal Court Judge in the City of Englewood Municipal Court. The Council shall appoint one of its members, one attorney practicing law in the City of Englewood, and three electors of the City to the Municipal Court Nominating Commission. Members of the Municipal Court Nominating Commission shall serve terms as follows: Council persons shall serve during their tenure, one member shall serve until December 31, 1982, one member shall serve until December 31, 1983, and two members shall serve until December 31, 1984. Thereafter, each member appointed shall serve until the 31st of December of the fourth year following the date of appointment.
