

Minutes from the
Englewood City Council
Study Session
Monday, July 21, 2014

Present were Mayor Randy Penn, Council Members Rick Gillit, Joe Jefferson, Bob McCaslin, Jill Wilson and Steve Yates. Also present were City Manager Gary Sears and City Attorney Dan Brotzman. Mayor Pro Tem Olson was not in attendance.

I. Malley Center Fees

▶ At 6:00 p.m. Parks and Recreation Director Jerrell Black Recreation Manager Joe Sack, Recreation Programs and Facility Supervisor Joyce Musgrove and chairs of the Malley Center Trust Fund Board and Malley Center Advisory Board discussed Malley Center fees. Consensus was reached to move forward.

II. Financial Report

▶ Finance and Administrative Services Director Frank Gryglewicz discussed the financial report.

III. Warrant Changes

▶ Municipal Court Administrator Tamara Wolfe discussed warrant changes.

IV. Police Communications Upgrade

▶ Deputy Police Chief Jeff Sanchez and Police Commander Tim Englert provided an update for Police Communications. Consensus was reached, support from Council.

V. City Manager Choice

- ▶ Director of Library Services Dorothy Hargrove discussed the application for a grant from the State of Colorado to support children services in the Library.
- ▶ Deputy City Manager Michael Flaherty discussed the 2014 Citizen Survey.
- ▶ City Manager Sears discussed the 2015 Budget prep process.

VI. City Attorneys Choice

▶ City Attorney Dan Brotzman provided an update to the Marijuana Ballot Initiative.

VII. Council Members Choice

- ▶ Council members discussed the logistics to the City Manager candidate interview and tour schedule.

- ▶ Council Member Jefferson discussed an Alliance for Commerce in Englewood meeting where the topic of doing a survey of local businesses was brought up. Discussion ensued. He further relayed a discussion at the Budget Advisory Committee about how to take the budget to a broader audience.

- ▶ Council Member Gillit discussed a Code Enforcement Advisory Committee meeting about dead trees and options for funding for homeowners. Council encouraged the continued discussion with the CEAC.

The meeting adjourned at 7:17 p.m.