Minutes from the
Englewood City Council
Study Session
Monday, February 23, 2015

Roll Call.
Present were Mayor Pro Tem Linda Olson, Council Members Rick Gillit, Joe Jefferson, Bob McCaslin, Jill Wilson and Steven Yates. Mayor Randy Penn was absent. Also present were City Manager Eric A. Keck and City Attorney Dan Brotzman.

I. Colorado Housing and Finance Authority Letter – Broadway Lofts

- Community Development Director Alan White and Troy Gladwell and Josh Russell of Medici Communities discussed the Colorado Housing and Finance Authority Tax Credit Application for the Broadway Lofts.

II. Redistricting

- Finance and Administrative Services Director Frank Gryglewicz, City Clerk Lou Ellis, and Planner II John Voboril discussed redistricting options.

III. Community Branding

- Communications Coordinator Leigh Ann Hoffhines, Library Services Director Dorothy Hargrove, Parks and Recreation Communications, Marketing Administrator Meghan Dwyer, and Economic Development Manager Darren Hollingsworth provided on update on the Community Branding efforts. Council requested a review of the request for proposal.

IV. Priority Based Budgeting

- City Manager Eric Keck introduced Jon Johnson and Chris Fabian from the Center for Priority Based Budgeting who presented Priority Based Budgeting. Discussion ensued.

V. City Managers Choice

- Carpeting instillation taking place in the Englewood Civic Center
- City Manager Eric Keck will be attending CCCMA at the end of the week.

VI. City Attorneys Choice

City Attorney Brotzman had nothing at this time.

VII. Council Members Choice

- Council Member Yates discussed an online check registry software.
- Council Member McCaslin met with the Englewood School District to build trophy cases.
- Council Member Gillit supported the use of an online check registry software.

Meeting adjourned at 9:33 p.m.