City of Englewood Citizen Initiated Ballot Question QUESTION NO. 200
Shall Article XV, Sections 137:2(1) and 138:3 (a) of the Home Rule Charter of the City of Englewood be amended as follows:
137:2 (1) "Supervisor". An individual having the authority, consistent with other provisions of this Article, in the interest of the employer to hire, fire, transfer, suspend, lay-off, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, discipline or evaluate other employees, or to adjust their grievances, or effectively to recommend any of the foregoing if, in connection with the foregoing, the exercise of such authority is not of a merely routine or clerical nature, but, rather, requires the use of independent judgment, provided, however, that individuals holding the position of lieutenant, or a functionally equivalent position, in the fire department shall not be considered supervisors as defined or used in this article, regardless of their duties or authority.
138:3 (a) The City Council shall appoint hearing officers who shall have demonstrable ability in labor and employee relations to hold hearings and make findings and determinations with respect to the following: disciplinary appeals, merit appeals and issues related to selection and retention of exclusive employee organizations and the determination of appropriate bargaining units. If a dispute exists over whether a person or position should be part of a bargaining unit, that dispute shall be resolved by a hearing officer, including all issues which can be raised over the application of § 137:2(1) and the person's or position's status as included or excluded from a bargaining unit shall remain unchanged until a hearing officer's decision.
