

Minutes from the
Englewood City Council
Study Session
Monday, January 9, 2012

Roll Call.

Present were Mayor Randy Penn, Mayor Pro Tem Jim Woodward, Council Members Rick Gillit, Joe Jefferson, Bob McCaslin, Linda Olson and Jill Wilson. Also present were City Manager Gary Sears and City Attorney Dan Brotzman.

I. Martin Plastics

▶ At 6:30 p.m. in the Community Room, Community Development Director Alan White and Jonathan Bush, Steve Kurtz and Tim Schlegel from Littleton Capital Partners discussed Martin Plastics located at Navajo Street and Oxford Avenue. Discussion ensued. City Council appreciated the information.

II. Kent Place Art Committee

▶ Community Development Director Alan White discussed with City Council the appointments to the Kent Place Art Committee. Woodward suggested adding Cynthia Madden Leitner to the Committee and suggested a person be selected from the Cultural Arts Committee. Wilson and Olson volunteered to be the City Council representatives. The two resident members would be Martha Kirkpatrick and Andrea Mallen. Mark Falcone would represent the developer and will contact the Committee.

III. City Managers Choice

A. ▶ South Broadway Mid-Block Signalized Pedestrian Crossing was discussed by Public Works Director Rick Kahm, Community Development Director Alan White and Traffic Engineer Ladd Vostry. Discussion ensued. City Council appreciated the information and suggested staff proceed.

B. ▶ Public Works Director Rick Kahm updated City Council about the Denver Water Vault Construction on Quincy and Broadway.

C. ▶ Penn commented on the board and commission interviews on January 23, 2012. The discussion was continued at the Regular Meeting.

IV. City Attorneys Choice

Brotzman had nothing for discussion.

The meeting adjourned at 7:30 p.m.