

Minutes from the
Englewood City Council
Study Session
Monday, March 4, 2013

Roll Call.

Present were Mayor Randy Penn, Mayor Pro Tem Jim Woodward, Council Members Rick Gillit, Joe Jefferson, Bob McCaslin, Linda Olson, Jill Wilson and City Manager Gary Sears. Also present were Littleton Mayor Debbie Brinkman, Council Members Jim Taylor, Peggy Cole, Jerry Valdes, Bruce Beckman, Phil Cernanec and City Manager Michael Penny, Littleton Highlands Ranch Metro District Chair Rick Owens and Board Member Carol Schierholz, Littleton Fire Protection District President David Oppenheimer and Manager Cindy Hathaway, Emergency Services Consulting International President Jack Snook and Associate Jim Broman.

I. Fire Services Study

▶ At 5:30 p.m. in the Community Room, Representatives of Emergency Services Consulting International will be present to discuss their Fire Services Study with the Englewood and Littleton City Councils. Introductions were made.

▶ ESCI President Snook and Associate Broman discussed the Cooperative Efforts Feasibility Study and the Strategic Initiatives. Discussion included response times, what the new organization would look like, intergovernmental agreements, time frame for consolidation, communications and costs.

The meeting adjourned at 7:15 p.m.

