

Minutes from the
Englewood City Council
Study Session
Monday, September 9, 2013

Roll Call.

Present were Mayor Randy Penn, Mayor Pro Tem Jim Woodward, Council Members Rick Gillit, Joe Jefferson, Bob McCaslin, Linda Olson and Jill Wilson. Also present were City Manager Gary Sears and Assistant City Attorney Nancy Reid.

I. EURA/Acoma Property

▶ At 6:00 p.m. in the Community Room, Community Development Director Alan White and Troy Gladwell of Medici Communities discussed the proposed development with City Council. City Council appreciated the information.

II. 2014 Proposed Budget

▶ City Manager Gary Sears, Deputy City Manager Mike Flaherty and Financial & Administrative Services Director Frank Gryglewicz discussed the 2014 Proposed Budget and Capital Improvements with City Council. City Council appreciated the information.

III. Proposed Fire Fees

▶ Fire Chief Andy Marsh and Fire Marshal Laura Herblan discussed proposed fire fees. City Council appreciated the information.

IV. City Managers Choice.

▶ Sears mentioned the tentative Sprouts ground breaking on October 1, 2013. City Council appreciated the information.

V. City Attorneys Choice.

▶ Reid had nothing for discussion.

VI. Council Members Choice.

▶ Penn commented on Gene Turnbulls funeral this Wednesday. He also commented about "The Bob" on Friday evening and the River Run charette on Thursday.

▶ Woodward mentioned a couple complaints about the water in the City.

▶ McCaslin commented about skunks in the City.

- ▶ Gillit mentioned the Muscular Dystrophy fundraiser, loud fans on Sinclair School, police officer lockers and homeless people in the CivicCenter.
- ▶ Olson thanked staff for follow up on council requests and tree trimming on Clarkson.
- ▶ Wilson mentioned that residents are excited about Sprouts coming to Englewood.
- ▶ Olson added that Trader Joes on University and Orchard could be competition for the new Sprouts on South Broadway.
- ▶ Jefferson nothing for discussion.

The meeting adjourned at 8:10 p.m.